Düsseldorf, 23rd February 2021 – auxmoney, the leading digital-lending platform for consumer credit in Europe, has made a key hire to strengthen its capital markets platform. Boudewijn Dierick, most recently Managing Director at the French bank BNP Paribas, joins the fintech as Managing Director of auxmoney Investments, the newly established investment arm of the company, based in Dublin. In this role, he will lead the local operations and drive the further expansion of auxmoney's international capital markets footprint.

Boudewijn brings long-term experience leading and building successful securitised financing product teams. At BNP Paribas, he was most recently heading the ABS markets team in the Securitised Products Group, one of the leading platforms in Europe in public ABS and private asset-backed funding. Under his leadership, the team won various awards as ABS, RMBS arranger from Global Capital and IFR.

“We are excited to have Boudewijn join our team, testimony to auxmoney's standing as leading platform amongst global investors”, says Daniel Drummer, CFO at auxmoney. “Boudewijn will be instrumental in further strengthening our capital markets platform and help auxmoney to establish new investment structures at scale.”

“With auxmoney's best-in-class technology and superior credit risk capabilities, the company is well positioned for further growth. Having Boudewijn on board will help to boost its expansion plans and therefore fortifying its position as one of the leading tech companies in Europe”, Max Rinke, Managing Director at Centerbridge Partners and member of the board of auxmoney, adds.

“After 14 years in banking, I am looking forward to switching over to the Fintech world in this exciting role at auxmoney and being part of its success story”, Boudewijn comments on his move. “Technology will drive the next wave of innovation in finance industry and auxmoney is best-positioned to reap the benefits of this change.”

Before BNP Paribas, Boudewijn Dierick was a director in the Securitisation team at UBS. Prior to that, he worked as Senior Analyst at Moody’s in Paris responsible for rating Covered Bonds, RMBS and ABS transactions in EMEA. He holds a Masters degree in Finance from the Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam and is Chairman of the ECBC (European Covered Bond Council). Boudewijn Dierick will start immediately and report to auxmoney’s CFO Daniel Drummer.
